

HALF YEARLY REPORT
OF THE
LONDON CONFERENCE
OF THE
CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS, HELD ON
SATURDAY, DEC. 31st, 1853, AND SUNDAY, JAN. 1st, 1854.

JAMES MARSDEN, President.
THOS. C. ARMSTRONG, Secretary.

The Presidents of Branches and a number of the Priesthood generally, including Travelling Elders and Presidents of other Conferences, assembled in the Meeting Room, Goswell Street, at 8 o'clock on Saturday evening, to receive the Branch Reports and transact various matters of Business. The Meeting opened by singing and prayer. The branch reports were handed in. The Authorities of the Church duly presented and sustained. The Branches were reported by the Presidents to be generally in good condition. The Meeting was then edified by several Addresses by Elder Benjamin Brown, Elder Marsden, Elder Major and others, after which the Meeting was closed as usual, and adjourned until Sunday morning.

SUNDAY MORNING.

At 11 o'clock, the Temperance Hall, Broadway, Westminster, was crowded nearly to suffocation, Meeting opened by prayer, after presenting the Authorities of the Church who were duly sustained, the Brethren and Sisters were addressed by Elders Brown and Marsden, after which Elder Mills ably addressed the Meeting upon the subject of the Person and Relationship of God, Meeting adjourned until afternoon.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON.

Meeting opened as usual, after an eloquent address by Elder Major, the Secretary then read a list of the various sums contributed by the respective Branches to the different funds, together with a summary of their Book debts, the returns shewed 204 Baptized, and 2891 Members in the Conference.

Elder Marsden then made some remarks as to the large amount of several of the branch debts, and gave general instructions upon the subject and expressed himself much pleased with the general attention that had been paid to his counsels during his Presidency, he also gave some good instructions to those about to emigrate, not to throw up their employments till ready to gather.
